

Fire & Evacuation Marshal - Basic firefighting and Emergency Action Planning

Course includes:

- Manual
- Certificate valid 3 years

Duration of the course:

1 day

Course contents:

- What is a fire?
- Classes of fires.
- Loadshedding and lithium battery fires
 - Fire safety with loadshedding
 - How water reacts with Lithium.
 - How Lithium fires differ from traditional fires
 - Differences between lithium-ion and lithium iron phosphate batteries
 - Extinguishing a lithium battery fire
 - Safe use and storage of lithium batteries
- Methods of extinguishing a fire
- Extinguishers
- Types of extinguishers
- Dangers of certain type of extinguishers
- How to check a fire extinguisher
- Monthly checklists
- How to use a fire extinguisher
- Remember these Firefighting tips:
- Rules for the safe use of fire extinguishers
- After use requirements
- Basic understanding of the growth and spread of fire
- What all Employees should know – workplace EMERGENCY ACTION PLAN (EAP)?
- Possible emergencies you may encounter in the workplace.
- Designing your site-specific EAP.
- Understanding the signage used in the workplace.
- Algorithm for the various emergency situations.
- General evacuation instructions
- The overview of the various task teams “job descriptions”
- Contents of a disaster pack
- Bomb threat procedure
- Electrical safety.
- Requirements for the Distribution Boards (DB)?
- Fire prevention
- Fire prevention in the workplace
- Fire safety and prevention for at home
- First aid
- What to do if your clothing catch on fire
- Burns
- Carbon Monoxide Poisoning